

Idlewilde Property Owners Association Storage Yard Policy

Idlewilde Property Owners Association (IPOA) manages the Idlewilde Subdivision Storage Yard. The storage yard provides space for property owners to store boats, jet skis, trailers and RVs. The storage of items is limited to property owners only. Deed restrictions prohibit parking of boats, trailers, etc. in driveways or on lots. The IPOA is not liable for any item in the storage yard.

Storage of an item requires the completion of a "Usage of Storage Yard" form. This form includes the following information:

- Name of property owner
- year, color, make, and model of item
- license plate and state (to be current)
- registration number and state (to be current)
- VIN or other identification number
- permanent address
- phone number(s)
- email address
- acceptance of Storage Yard Policies and Procedures
- signature

The form includes the following information by the IPOA volunteer:

- slot number assigned
- number of keys provided
- date assigned
- acknowledgement attached ID tag to item
- signature

An identification tag will be attached to the property owners item. The information on the tag will include:

- name of property owner
- slot number
- brief description of item (i.e. RV, boat trailer, enclosed trailer, etc.)

Property Owners will update or acknowledge information is current when IPOA dues are submitted annually. Failure to provide current and accurate identification of stored items may result in removal of Unclaimed items.
